

Mission Trip Participation Expectations

Thank you for your interest in being on mission with Deer Park First. Please look over the following list of expectations and note that these are minimum prerequisites as specific trips may occasionally require additional qualifications. You may contact Sarah Miller, Strategic Outreach Minister, via email at smiller@dpfbc.org or by calling 479-2391 if you have any questions.

- ❖ Local (projects within our church body and out in our community)
 - Show up or sign up as directed
 - Must be active participant at DPFBC
 - Already completed or have registered for next *Discover Class

- ❖ Regional (projects in Houston Area)
 - Sign up as directed
 - Must be active participant at DPFBC
 - Already completed or have registered for next *Discover Class
 - Must be a believer able to share testimony

- ❖ North American (projects with one of our strategic NAMB partners)
 - Must complete Mission Trip Application
 - Must be active church member (at DPFBC or another approved local church)
 - Must have acceptable current background check on file with DPFBC (within previous 2 years)
 - Must have participated in a local or regional project within the last two years
 - *Discover Class complete
 - Already completed, registered, or have begun *Life on Mission study

- ❖ International (projects with one of our strategic IMB partners)
 - Must complete Mission Trip Application
 - Must be active church member (at DPFBC or another approved local church)
 - Must have acceptable current background check on file with DPFBC (within previous 2 years)
 - Must have participated in a local or regional project within the last two years
 - Must have served in a church ministry for at least 3 months
 - *Discover Class complete
 - *Life on Mission study complete

* The Discover Class will be necessary for church members who have joined since 2016. People with prior membership dates will need to either attend or read through the material only. All church members are encouraged to attend this class (held monthly) if so desired.

 The Life on Mission study will be required for first-time trip participants. People with prior national or international trip experience will be encouraged to read through the book. All church members are encouraged to attend all four classes if so desired.